

DP WORLD CHAIRMAN DISCUSSES DP WORLD'S VANCOUVER PORT EXPANSION PLANS

Dubai, Vancouver, 25 July 2006

The Chairman of Dubai World, Sultan Bin Sulayem, has met senior representatives of the Government of Vancouver, Canada, to discuss plans for the expansion of DP World's premier P&O terminal on the North American continent.

He held talks with David Emerson, the Minister of International Trade and the Pacific Gateway, and with John Van Dongen, Minister of State for Inter-Governmental Relations.

When the expansion work on the P&O terminal is completed by September this year, the facility will be 40 percent larger than it is now. Existing facilities include logistics and warehousing.

DP World said it has been offered all necessary support to ensure the success of the scheme and the Canadian authorities have invited Bin Sulayem to inaugurate the new facility in September.

Mr Bin Sulayem also met Frank Borowicz, Chairman of the Vancouver Board of Trade and World Trade Centre during his visit to the Canadian Pacific coast city.

Sultan Bin Sulayem with John Van Dongen, Minister of State for Inter-Governmental Relations, Vancouver. DPWorld's P&O Terminal with their orange cranes is visible in the background.

Sultan Bin Sulayem with Frank Borowitz, Chairman, Vancouver Board of Trade and World Trade Centre (right) and a guest, in Vancouver.