“We are honoured to support the nation-building initiative launched by His Highness Sheikh Majid Bin Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum. Promoting professional and leadership skills among young Emiratis is an integral part of DP World, UAE Region’s corporate strategy, and we see this as an opportunity to reaffirm our commitment towards the welfare and development of the nation. This will definitely lead to a productive generation capable of actively participating in the national production process. DP World will provide the trainees with an opportunity to enter a unique sector that adds value to the initiative. We hope that this MoU marks the beginning of a long cooperation that benefits and supports our Emirati youth.”
