

IRANIAN VICE PRESIDENT TOURS DP WORLD'S ADEN CONTAINER TERMINAL

Aden, Yemen/Dubai, United Arab Emirates, December 27, 2010: - HE Hamid Baqaei, Vice President of the Islamic Republic of Iran, visited global port operator DP World's Aden Container Terminal (ACT) last week. The Vice President and his accompanying delegation, who were received by senior DP World Aden officials, toured the facility.

The Aden Container Terminal is positioned as a major transshipment hub to serve East Africa, the Red Sea and the Indian Subcontinent region. DP World is committed to increase ACT's capacity to 1.5 million TEUs in line with market demand.

Captain Faisal Al Qahtani, Senior Vice President & Managing Director, DP World Middle East region, said:

"We are honoured by the visit of HE Hamid Baqaei, Vice President of the Islamic Republic of Iran, to Aden Container Terminal. Aden is an important commercial gateway for Yemen and nearby countries. DP World is committed to playing a vital role in the development of Yemen's economy and create employment opportunities for the local community."
