

DP WORLD AND UAE RED CRESCENT ORGANISE RAMADAN TRIP FOR ORPHANS

Dubai Mall visit part of Ramadan Social Initiative by port operator's
Head Office and UAE Region

Dubai, United Arab Emirates, September 6, 2010: - A group of 50 Emirati orphans was treated to an evening of food, fun and entertainment at Dubai Mall on Sunday (September 5) by global port operator DP World and the UAE Red Crescent.

The engaging and educational trip for the children was sponsored jointly by DP World's Head Office and its UAE Region as part of their month-long Ramadan Social Initiative programme.

The youngsters – aged between four and 14 – were supervised throughout by volunteer staff members from DP World and the UAE Red Crescent.

For the orphans, it was a Ramadan evening to remember that began with an Iftar meal at The Rainforest Café. This was followed by a trip to the Dubai Aquarium and Underwater Zoo, where the children enjoyed viewing a variety of exotic marine life.

The highlight of the evening was a trip to the mall's KidZania attraction, a scaled-down replica of a real city built just for children. The youngsters had fun playing adult roles such as airline pilots, doctors and firefighters, and were able to move around the make-believe city by bus or even by hiring a car.

Mohammed Sharaf, Chief Executive Officer, DP World, said:

“Voluntary social work is an essential part of our nation's development. We are pleased that the DP World family has stepped forward to join hands with the UAE Red Crescent to provide an evening of fun and entertainment for these children. Our aim was to send a message of love and care to these young citizens of the UAE, and we look forward to encouraging such voluntary social service in the future.”

DP World's Ramadan Social Initiative programme has included a road safety campaign in association with the RTA, a blood donation drive in aid of the Dubai Thalassaemia Centre, and a book donation campaign to restock its staff accommodation library.
