

DP WORLD

DP WORLD SCOOPS TWO INTERNATIONAL AWARDS

- DP World Chairman receives Lifetime Achievement Award from Lloyd's List
- DP World awarded The Container Terminal Operator Award

Dubai, 9 November 2006: - Sultan Ahmed Bin Sulayem, Chairman of DP World has been awarded "The Lifetime Achievement Award" at the second Lloyd's List Middle East and Indian Sub-continent Awards. DP World also received "The Container Terminal Operator Award" for 2006 at the awards ceremony, held in Dubai last night.

The lifetime achievement award, sponsored by the maritime and transport publisher, Lloyd's List, recognizes Mr. Bin Sulayem for the outstanding and lasting contributions he has made to the maritime industry, as well as for his vision and leadership of leading global marine terminal operator, DP World.

Accepting the award, Sultan Ahmed Bin Sulayem said:

"I am delighted to receive this Lifetime Achievement Award from Lloyd's List and members of the international maritime community. The last few years have been hugely exciting for DP World as we have grown from a regional to an international terminal operator. I would like to dedicate this award to management and staff around the world, whose invaluable contribution has allowed DP World to become a successful international terminal operator. In addition, their tireless commitment to customer service, enhancing global security and operational efficiency continues to position DP World as a leader in our industry.

The Container Terminal Operator Award, sponsored by United Arab Shipping Co SAG, was presented to DP World in recognition of outstanding operational performance in an increasingly challenging environment. Upon receiving the award, Mohammed Al Muallem, Senior Vice President and Managing Director, UAE Region, said:

"This is the second year that DP World has received this prestigious award which is testament to the hard work and professionalism of our people. Under the guidance of our Chairman who has also been honoured today, we will continue to break new ground in efficiency, security, and customer service levels."

DP World is the largest marine terminal operator in the Middle East and Indian sub-continent, with operations in the UAE, Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, and in nine locations in India, with a further two ports under construction in Kulpi and Vallarpadam.

The Lloyd's List awards recognize and honour those companies and individuals for their performance and conduct across the maritime industries. They reflect the growing influence of this region on the international maritime stage and recognize dynamism, commitment and above all outstanding performance.

-ends-

Media inquiries:

Tom Mollo	Sarah Lockie
Bell Pottinger	DP World
+971 4 367 2256	+971 4 808 0835
+971 50 550 4203	+971 50 659 6944

DP World is one of the largest marine terminal operators in the world and has the widest network of any, with 51 terminals spanning 24 countries and five continents. It provides quality services designed to enhance customers' supply chain efficiency, including bringing together container and other terminals, free zones, logistics facilities, infrastructure developments and consultancy service where these services add value for customers.

DP World invests in the infrastructure, facilities and people at its operations to further enhance the customer's experience and satisfaction, and increase trade. It also invests ahead of demand, working closely with customers and business partners to ensure capacity and services are in place when customers need them.

In taking this customer-centric approach, DP World is building on the relationships with customers and superior level of service established at its flagship operation in Dubai, Port Rashid and Jebel Ali, which has been voted "Best Seaport in the Middle East" for 12 consecutive years.

DP World's international achievements were recognised in 2006 when DP World won Lloyd's List's prestigious Port Operator of the Year Award.

In 2006, DP World acquired P&O, including P&O Ports. The combined throughput of both companies for 2005 was more than 36 million TEU (twenty-foot equivalent container units) across ports from the Americas to Asia.

Today, DP World has a global capacity of more than 50 million TEU and a dedicated, experienced and professional team of 34,000 people providing services in some of the most dynamic economies in the world. Significant expansion is underway in key markets around the world, including in India, China and the Middle East.