

DP WORLD WINS TWO IMPORTANT AFSCA AWARDS

- DP World Jebel Ali wins best seaport Middle East for 14th consecutive year
- DP World's Asia Container Terminal Ltd (ACT), Hong Kong, wins Best Container Terminal in Asia under 4 TEUs per annum

Dubai, 27 April 2008: - Global marine terminal operator DP World has collected two awards at the prestigious Asian Freight and Supply Chain Awards (AFSCA), presented at a gala dinner ceremony at the Pan Pacific Hotel, Singapore.

The annual event is organised by the newspaper Cargonews Asia. More than 12,200 of its readers were polled to select the companies they considered the best in the 42 awards categories.

DP World Jebel Ali won Best Seaport in the Middle East for the 14th consecutive year, while DP World's Asia Container Terminal Ltd (ACT) in Hong Kong won the Best Container Terminal - Asia under 4m TEUs per annum award for the first time. Last year DP World's Container Terminal 3 (CT3), Hong Kong collected the award.

On receiving the award, Senior Vice President and Managing Director of DP World's UAE region, Mohammed Al Muallem said, "We are delighted that our Jebel Ali facility has once again been acknowledged as the region's leader. This is a testament to the DP World people's constant focus on excellent service and going the extra mile to meet customers' ever-expanding needs."

Senior Vice President and Managing Director of DP World's Asia Pacific region, Peter Wong said, "We are proud that our second Hong Kong terminal ACT has been recognised as a leader and look forward to earning our customers' votes into the future. This award build's on the recognition our other Hong Kong terminal, CT3, achieved in the awards last year."

The Cargonews 2008 Asian Freight & Supply Chain Awards have been running for 22 years and have long been established as the industry's top accolade for excellence within Asia.

About DP World

DP World is one of the largest marine terminal operators in the world, with 43 terminals and 13 new developments across 28 countries¹. Its dedicated, experienced and professional team of nearly 30,000 serves customers in some of the most dynamic economies in the world.

DP World aims to enhance customers' supply chain efficiency by effectively managing container, bulk and other terminal cargo.

The company constantly invests in terminal infrastructure, facilities and people, working closely with customers and business partners to provide quality services today and tomorrow, when and where customers need them.

In taking this customer-centric approach, DP World is building on the established relationships and superior level of service demonstrated at its flagship operations in Dubai - Port Rashid and Jebel Ali. Jebel Ali has been voted "Best Seaport in the Middle East" for 13 consecutive years. DP World's international achievements were recognised in 2006, when Lloyd's List's awarded it the prestigious Port Operator of the Year Award.

In 2007, DP World handled more than 43.3 million TEU (twenty-foot equivalent container units) across its portfolio from the Americas to Asia – an increase of 18% on 2006. It has global capacity of more than 48 million TEU, which is set to increase significantly in coming years with a committed pipeline of expansion and development projects in key growth markets, including India, China and the Middle East. Capacity will rise to around 90 million TEU by 2017.
