DP World announces London Gateway will open in 2013

Dubai, UAE:- Tuesday 4 October 2011: DP World has today announced that their new development in the United Kingdom, London Gateway will become operational in the fourth quarter of 2013 with an initial capacity of 1.6 million TEU.

London Gateway will be Britain's most environmentally friendly major new deep-sea port adjacent to what is set to be Europe's largest Logistics Park. London Gateway is located closer to the UK's largest consumer markets of London and the South East ensuring that UK business will soon be able to take advantage of a more cost effective way of getting the nation's goods to consumers. DP World is expecting to invest a further $1 billion in London Gateway over the next three years.

Investors and analysts are invited to join a conference call at 1500 UK time (1800 UAE / 1000 New York) on Wednesday 5 October to discuss the project in greater detail. Please reply to investor.relations@dpworld.com so we can advise of dial in details. A copy of the presentation will be available on the DP World website within the investor centre ahead of the call.
